
THE ROLE OF THE TEACHER LIBRARIAN IN THE IOWA CORE

March 11, 2009

ICN Session – Kristin Steingreaber, Great Prairie AEA Media Specialist

Kristin.steingreaber@gpaea.k12.ia.us

Handouts: Excerpts from
 Allison Zmuda and Violet H. Harada’s book, Librarians as Learning Specialists – Meeting the Learning Imperative for the 21st Century (Libraries Unlimited, 2008).
 Callison, Daniel. Table 1: A Rubric for Inquiry, Exploration, Conversation and Discovery (Knowledge Quest, January/February 2007)
 Donham, Jean. Standards! Standards! Standards! Table 2 (Teacher Librarian, April 2008)
 Loertscher, David. Flip This Library – Table “The Paradigm Flip” (School Library Journal, November 2008).
Student-Centered Classrooms and Teacher for Learner Differences (Iowa Dept. of Education 2008)
Use This Page – Steps to Designing Inquiry-Based Units (SLMAM, Nov. 2008)
 Weisman, Kay. Critical Thinking and Deep Discussions Using Bloom’s Taxonomy (Book Links, January 2008).

Create Foldable

- Iowa Core Curriculum Background – Paradigm Shift
 Curriculum = Content, Instruction & Learning, and Assessment

Iowa Core	School Library Community
-----------	--------------------------

- Content:

Essential Skills and Concepts	AASL / NETS / Partnership 21 st Century / Learning Specialist (Standards!, Jean Donham (TL, 2008)
-------------------------------	--

- Instruction & Learning:

*Teaching for Understanding	Learning Commons
*Rigorous and Relevant	Collaboration
*Student-Centered Classrooms	Our literature & content area literature (STEM)
*Teacher for Learner Differences	Standards support a culture of inquiry
Problem-solving
Technology	Web 2.0 / Smart Board / Digital collections

- *Assessment for Learning

Formative	Dispositions / Formative / Cornerstone
-----------	--

Characteristics of Effective Instruction

- Web sites: <http://www.corecurriculum.iowa.gov/Home.aspx>
<http://www.iowa.gov/educate>
<http://www.ala.org/aasl/standards>
<http://profdev.iasl.iowapages.org/index.html>
<http://iateacherlibrarians.ning.com/> - Select Forum